

I am OUTRAGED at the proposed changes to the guidelines for media ownership, and at the avoidance of public input on them. These changes will benefit the large media conglomerates while being DISASTROUS for our less-and-less democratic democracy. There is NO REASON the vote cannot be postponed to allow a more transparent process. SHAME ON YOU. Very typical of the current administration.